COLT ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT

The Colts section continues to flourish providing coaching and games for over 100 boys.

As in previous years all age groups entered the various mini-leagues and cups.

Under the excellent managementship of Ron Chambers the Under 11's won their mini-league and finished as County Runners-up to a very strong Winchmore Hill side. Richard Minor, Rhodri Harvey, Malcolm Lewis and Joel Fine all performed well during the season. Richard Minor, our Under 11's captain, has been selected for the Middlesex Preparatory Schools tour to Australia in December 1990.

Both the Under 13's and Under 15's produced disappointing results, hopefully the 1990 season will see an improvement.

The Under 17's were Runners-up to Old Actonians in their league. A notable performance was Gavin Juster's knock of 114 not out against Wembley.

The Colts Festival was held again with some excellent cricket being played.

A number of boys played for the South Area in representative games and also a number of boys attended County trials. With Sam Finlay, Gavin Juster and Lee Irons representing Middlesex in their respective age-groups.

It is encouraging to note that many ex-colts and current colts are now beginning to make major contributions to Brentham senior sides, hopefully this trend will continue and develop into the 1990's.

My thanks to all those who take part in the running of our Colts and lets hope for an enjoyable 1990 season.

Clifford Pile
